Unit Description

This unit is the point in the curriculum where you define your own ambitions within fashion photography through a resolved body work based on your own personal concepts and directions. This is a fashion book containing several fashion stories or narratives and might include collaboration with other course students or a professional team but must evidence ambition and awareness in the use of models, styling and impact. You will be able to draw upon your skills within the studio and location as well as retouching and final image editing to create a series of final photographs that best sum up your position as an emerging professional.

The unit encourages work to be produced in three distinct phases – namely Research, Practice and Publish – a recognised professional methodology. You will be expected to produce materials relating to each phase of this unit in order to maintain momentum over 45 credits as well as breaking down complex tasks and study into more manageable and realistic goals.

The unit encourages you to be creative in how best to showcase your abilities and this might also draw on aspects of moving image as well as more physical displays of work in installation form or digital screen based presentation – this might also extend to using virtual realities or CAD platforms in line with directions generally within the fashion industry. You might also at this point draw on existing relationships with industry brands or clients to further define this personal approach – the emphasis being an international outlook in your final work and ambition.

The Five Principles underpin the Mindsets and Skillsets Manifesto and are the foundation upon which all course curriculum frameworks and unit specifications are based. The relevant Principles as stated below have been mapped against the Learning Outcomes relevant to each course unit and at each level (see Programme Specifications for full description of the Five Principles):

1. Cultivate / Where the individual thrives.
2. Collaborate / Where disciplines combine and evolve.
3. Integrate / Where education engages industry.

4. Advocate / Where purpose meets practice.
5. Originate / Where enquiry informs creativity.

Unit Indicative Content

- Developing a series of project proposals based on visual research and career ambitions into a self-defined brief that is distinct within the chosen study option.
- Developing a treatment to plan and develop initial concepts into practicalities- specifically regarding aspects of practice and publishing.
- The sourcing and managing of creative support such as models, teams, styling, hair & make-up, design, moving image and other external inputs into a final project.
- The management of studio time, location access, travel carnets, hire of equipment where applicable.
- Advanced use of image capture and workflow with output to print as being the main focus.
- Distinctive and appropriate lighting on location and in the studio where appropriate.
- The development of images into final print-ready artwork and the sourcing of third-party support in terms of defined publishing strategies for book, magazine or wall.
- An awareness of the specific elements of practice needed to authentically produce work within a chosen genre.
- The management of resources, time and facilities to meet a defined deadline.

Unit Aims

To prove the ability to refine and develop a self-defined concept through to final realization through three key stages of production.

To support the fully controlled and assured use of technical and practical skills to realise outcomes with an awareness of industry expectations.

To develop a sophisticated understanding of audience and context and the application of that understanding to considerations of publication and final output.

To provide a well-informed understanding of industry relevant practice, particularly areas closely related to potential career paths or areas of specific interest.

To emphasise high levels of personal organisation, responsibility, punctuality and control of varied resources required to successfully bring a major photographic project to completion.

Unit Learning Outcomes

LO1 CULTIVATE

- Technical Competence
- Subject Knowledge
- Resilience

Evidence and contextualise capacity for utilising and synthesising discipline specific knowledge and technical competencies to support academic & practical self-efficacy and advancing employability proficiencies.

LO2 COLLABORATE

- Inter-disciplinary Working
- Coproduction

Demonstrate ability to combine strategies that synthesise inter-disciplinary and trans-disciplinary working methods into personal practice.
Evidence aptitude to synthesise cooperative interactions and partnerships/teamwork in personal working methodologies.

LO3 INTEGRATE

- Communication & Presentation
- Networking
- Professional Practice

Demonstrate effective competence to employ coherent and aligned communication and presentation strategies in physical, written and oral forms.

Evidence capacity to combine & synthesise ideas, materials, tests and outcomes into solutions to inform and support and enable practical and theoretical development in physical, written and oral forms.

Learning and Teaching Methods

Lecture
Seminar
Tutorial
Guest Lecture
Independent study
Directed Study

Hybrid approaches to study that might include online and pre-recorded materials as well as in-class sessions that concentrate on acquiring practical skills and software/hardware integration as well as industry contact. This also might include a client briefing and final assessment if the client was not based in the UK for example.

Assessment methods and tasks

Brief description of assessment methods

- Formative Assessment: You will be given the opportunity for formative feedback/feedforward. This will be given midway through the unit or at an appropriate time.
- Summative assessment: Is the completion of the main unit tasks – typically a finished outcome together with associated research and reflective elements and the completion of a digital workbook and accompanying treatments or presentations.
- Presentations to tutors and/or peers are usually within a small group environment where at least two tutors are present. This is an oral examination that would look at the content and the delivery of your presentation.
- In some cases, digital files will be required to assess technical skill.

You will be notified of your grades within 3 weeks of the hand in date and feedback is usually via an audio file in which at least two tutors contribute to feedback and feedforward.

Assessment tasks	Weighting (%) (one grade or multi-grade unit)
A fully resolved body of photographic or related work that defines a personal response to a self-initiated-brief.	100%
A comprehensive digital workbook that evidences the progression of this unit and is reflective and analytical in nature.

Indicative Assessment Criteria

Assessment criteria are the basis on which the judgment of the adequacy of the work is made. A more detailed assessment criteria will be specified in the brief.

- Demonstrate the ability to engage with the process of developing a self-defined brief into a final body of work through three distinct aspects of practice. (LO1)
- Demonstrate an understanding of testing ideas and reflective working practices through the use of a workbook, treatment and the progression through stages of research, practice and publishing. (LO5)
- Demonstrate an informed choice of technique and application of practice within a chosen genre of photography. (LO4)
- Demonstrate an ability to communicate a position or agenda through photographs and related media to an intended audience. (LO3)
- Utilise fully a range of practice-based outcomes relating to a self-defined brief which might contain aspects of creative collaboration or trans-disciplinary working (LO2)
