Unit Description

Portfolio MFA pathway provides you with an opportunity to create professional-standard editing work. The parameters of this work are defined and driven by you. For the MFA pathway you will deliver:

- 1) at least one edited piece (duration negotiable but usually between 5 – 20 minutes) and a plan to promote it
- 2) one related promotional edit in the form of a trailer, showreel, advert or promo (duration guide 15s – 3mins)

You will be supported to specialise in your chosen genre/s and be expected to use research to help develop and evaluate your work. For example: Using published edited artefacts to help direct your creative process; using focus group research to evaluate audience reaction to your work

The unit has a weighted framework where components will contribute to a single final grade. Practical projects could include freelance commissions, your own shoot-and-edit projects, or work derived from a rushes library. The scale and combination of your projects will be negotiated with the course team at the start of term with a proposal and learning agreement.

You will write critical reports that detail the creative and research dimensions of your work. You will report on and explain the client relationship if applicable.

All projects should be of a professional quality, finished to picture lock
Upon completion, it is mandatory that you attend an online viva (or pre-record where applicable) during which you will have an opportunity to present and discuss your work.
