1) Details

Name: XXXXXX

Course(s)/Unit(s) examined: BA (Hons) Digital Film Production

Tenure: XXXXXX

to: XXXXXX

Annual fee: £500

2) Length of Tenure

Your appointment as an external examiner will be for four academic years, and for undergraduate courses will commence on XXXXXX and ending on XXXXXX.

3) Responsibilities

As an external examiner your responsibilities will relate to the course(s)/unit(s) for which you are appointed to, and will include:

- Approval of assessment that contributes towards the award – under Ravensbourne’s current assessment regulations, this applies to assessments set at Level 5 and 6.
- Sampling of student’s work – in accordance with Ravensbourne’s policies and procedures. The exact size of the sample will be set in agreement with the Course Leader
- Oversight of retrieval work, where it is a requirement of a PSRB
- Attendance at the final Assessment Board and the Retrieval Board(s) where it is a requirement of a PSRB
- Commenting on proposed changes to validated courses
- Submission of an annual external examiner report – to be submitted on the relevant template, within 1 month of the final exam board

Lead Examiner

For courses with more than one external examiner Ravensbourne will appoint a lead examiner, who will undertake the additional responsibilities of:

- Meeting with the other external examiners
- Resolving issues of disagreement between the external examiners
- Mentoring new examiners to the course who lack external examining experience

4) Induction

Following receipt of a signed copy of this form, you will receive a mailout from Ravensbourne which will include the following:

- External Examiner Handbook
- Course definitive documents
- Completed External Examiner Action plan in response to previous year's report
- Copy of the Assessment Regulations

You will also be sent details of the annual External Examiner Induction, which external examiners are expected to attend, alongside their visits.

5) Termination of appointment

Should you be unable to continue in your role as examiner, you should email quality@rave.ac.uk as soon as possible to resign from your position.

Failure to meet the responsibilities as laid out in the Terms of Appointment may lead to Ravensbourne terminating your appointment.

6) Changes to personal circumstances

The terms of your appointment as an external examiner at Ravensbourne are based on your current employment details. Should these details change it is your responsibility to update Ravensbourne.

You should also be aware of the conflicts of interest that may arise during your tenure as an external examiner, which are taken from the UK Quality Code and are available here. Should any conflict arise, in the reasonable opinion of Ravensbourne, your appointment may be terminated with immediate effect.

7) Payments
